Biographies

Jon Rudolph makes his stage debut with the FFP. He is a manager at L.S. Ayers, and he enjoys writing, golfing, fishing, and spending time with his family.

Marty Smith appeared last in the FFP production of the "COD's". It marked a 30 year hiatus from the stage due to marriage, children and life in general. She hopes to do more in the future. It is a lot of fun and she recommends it to everyone.

Patty Eycleshymer taught English in the Niles schools for 31 years. Going from that to the stage wasn't a difficult transition, although it was easier when she could make up her own lines. This is her second appearance with the FFP, she was in the "COD's" playing Ellen.

Dale Banks, Chair of Education at St. Mary's College is making his first appearance on stage. Encouraged by his wife and friends to audition, his demeanor and profile lead an air of authenticity to the role. We are happy to have him.

Dana Rudolph makes a second appearance with the FFP also being involved in "A Christmas Medley". She was involved with Community Theater out west and is enjoying being involved once again with a theater troupe.

Cathy Heide (Fiona) is enjoying her second acting experience in this production, although she wonders if she is a victim of typecasting... She previously performed in the COD's in the role of Maggie. Working with the Drama Club at Niles High School continues to fuel her passion for the dramatic arts. Cathy has most recently directed NHS Drama Club's production of Shakespeare's The Tempest.

Danielle Davis is sashaying back into theater after a 10 year hiatus. After attending Interlochen Arts Academy, she appeared in many on stage productions, most notably Nonsense I&II at the Beckwith Theater. This highly talented visual arts actress sends kisses to her biggest fan and daughter, Rowan.

Dustin Wilfert is a 20 year old graduate of SMC. He was last on stage at SMC playing Kenickie in "Grease". He is thrilled to be working on the show and thanks the cast and crew for the opportunity. It's Great!

Ron Goodwin performed in the Andersonville Trial and Enter Laughing at the Kalamazoo Civic Theater as well as numerous Baker Plays at Clay United Methodist Church and a role in Witness for the Prosecution at the South Bend Civic Theater, this is Ron's first appearance with the Four Flags Players. He has also written and acted in several Christian based skits in addition to doing several narrations of Christmas and Easter plays both at Clay Church and First Missionary Church in Niles, where he and his wife, Marge make their home.

Todd Wakevainen, One of the original FFP has in his "old age" realized his dream of returning live theater to the Niles area. Thanks to everyone who has helped make this possible (p.s. we really need money for lights and a light desk!)

Jan Personette first started with FFP with the production of "COD's". She likes backstage details, and is active in other community projects.

Sharon Hanback has always enjoyed being in the audience, but now that she is retired, she volunteered to work backstage, and is having a wonderful time.
